

Mid-American Association for Behavior Analysis
2016 Annual Conference

SYMPOSIUM I

- Carla Lagorio - Opening Remarks
- Carla Lagorio - “What Ought We to Do? Who Ought We to Be? Some Lingering Questions for Behavior Analysts”
- Jonathan Baker - “Behavioral Gerontology: State of the Science, 1999-2016”

SYMPOSIUM II

- Nicole Rodriguez - “Teaching Children with Autism to Request Help with Difficult Tasks”
- Jessica Weafer - “Inhibitory Control and Risk for Drug Abuse”

SYMPOSIUM III

- Jennifer Asmus - “Shaping Best Practices in Assessment and Intervention: School Problem Solving Teams as the Unit of Analysis”
- Kevin C. Luczynski - “In-Home Measurement and Treatment of Pediatric Sleep Disturbance with Children Diagnosed with Autism”

SYMPOSIUM IV

- Kerri P. Peters - “Assessment and Intervention for Core Features of Autism”
- David R. Maguire - “Exploring the Link Between Impulsivity and Drug Abuse Using Choice Procedures”

SYMPOSIUM V

- Richard Smith - “Faster, Easier, Safer: Evolution of Functional Assessment Procedures to Improve Efficiency and Reduce Risk”
- Adam Briggs - “Investigation of Differential Reinforcement of Alternative Behavior Without Extinction for Escape-Maintained Problem Behavior”
- Amy Henley – “Nickel-and-Dimed: A Crowdsourced Behavioral Economic Approach to Analog OBM Research”

SYMPOSIUM VI

- Heather McGee - “Look Before You Leap! Using Behavioral Systems Analysis to Plan Large-Scale Organizational Change Initiatives”
- Erica N. Feuerbacher - “What Does Man’s Best Friend See in Us: Using Behavior Analysis to Study the Human-Dog Relationship”